

Do not modify present rules of media ownership, please. Media strongly influences trends. To allow open ownership will result in the wealthiest faction of the media having the most influence. Media is too powerful not to be under the influence of a our government which is elected by democratic me